

At Risk Intake Questionnaire

Human Aggression

Based on the information you have provided to us thus far on the dog you are relinquishing custody of we have determined that additional information may be needed. Please take a few moments to help us gather more information.

What was the circumstance regarding the incident? Please describe in as much detail as possible.

Where did the incident take place?

Fenced yard On leash Off leash In house other

If the incident took place outside of the fenced yard or house, how was the dog outside of this area?

Escaped House Escaped Yard Escaped tie down Walking on leash Walking off leash with owner

If the dog escaped the house, yard or tie down, please explain how it escaped

Did the dog appear to be guarding something when incident took place? If yes, what

Food toy yard person furniture bedding

Did the dog approach the person or did the person approach the dog?

If the dog approached the person during the incident, How far did the dog move to get to the person? How fast did the dog move?

Sex and approximate age of victim

Male Female Age

Did the dog know the person involved in the incident?

Yes No If yes, how?

Did the person appear impaired in any way, either physically or mentally?

Yes No If yes, how?

Did the incident result in injuries to the person? Yes No

If yes, please Check the one that best describes the injury

No contact: Obnoxious or aggressive behavior but no skin contact with teeth

Light Contact: Skin contact with teeth but no skin puncture, may be light scratches but no punctures

Medium Contact: Skin contact causing punctures and/or deep scratches

Hard Contact: Multiple deep punctures and/or tearing or skin

Multiple Hard Contacts: Multiple bites causing deep puncture or tearing

Fatal Contact: Victim deceased

During the above injury did the dog

Make contact and release on its own

Make contact, shake and tug then release on its own

Make multiple contacts including shake or tear and release on its own

Make contact and did not release on his own

Did the person's injuries require medical attention? If so, please explain

If the dog did not release the victim on its own, how was dog made to release?

What happened after dog released, or was made to release?

Ran away went after victim again stayed away from victim other

What else should we know about this dog?

Was this an isolated incident?

Is there a history of these behaviors?